Registration Starts June 10!

We're celebrating the theme, A Universe of Stories. Readers can explore reading challenges, earn badges, and track reading logs through printed materials—or virtually through a new digital platform called Beanstack. Funding generously provided by the Friends of the Scarborough Library!

Kick-Off with Bee Parks & the Hornets

Wednesday, June 12 at 6:00 PM

Wentworth Intermediate School Café

The Wentworth School Café will be buzzing with energy as Bee Parks and the Hornets perform a rockin' music concert. Original songs, puppetry, and audience participation will get everyone up and moving—and promote kindness, equality, and self-confidence.

Reading and activity challenges will help teens fulfill their summer reading for school—and our

Wednesday Teen Meetup events

with Connie will keep them in touch with friends...and help them meet new ones!

Teen Lock In Celebrates Movies

Friday, June 14 6:00 pm to 8:30 pm

For students entering Grades 6-8 in the fall

A Tangled Escape Room. A Brave Maze through the book stacks. A Mulan and Ewok Maker Space. A Sith Fortune Teller. The Teen Advisory Board (TAB) has planned an awesome movie-themed Lock In to celebrate the last day of school. Doors open at 6:00 pm, then lock at 6:30 pm. Register by June 12!

Teen Meetup

Wednesday, July 10, 17 & 24 6:00 pm - 7:30 pm Gr. 6 up

It's hard to catch up with friends over the summer. Get together at our mid-week meetup for teens. What are you reading? Seen any great movies? Following any interesting channels? It's your time to share with friends. We've invited some special guests for two of the dates.

- July 10: Hannah Chamberlain, Scarborough Land Trust Stewardship Director, will share a craft that celebrates the environment.
- July 24: Artist Nina Sophia Swart will demonstrate bookbinding and the art of creating Zines.

It's Time to Celebrate!

Two Mid-Summer Parties will celebrate the reading you've done so far—and give you the extra push to keep on going through the summer!

Teen Mid-Summer Celebration

Wednesday, August 7 6:00 pm—7:30 pm Gr. 6 up
